

What saves the most ELECTRICITY?

Electricity is sold in KWHs or kilowatt-hours
1 KWH= 1,000 watts metered in one hour

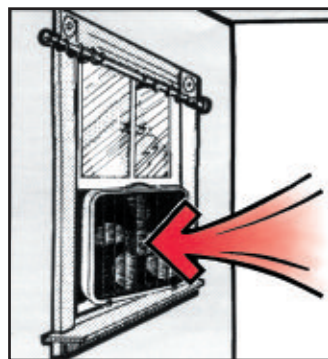

Unplug that second refrigerator or freezer.

SAVE
$252 or 1,800 Kilowatt-Hours—Per Year

Reduce your need for electric space heaters. Weatherize your house and wear winter clothing.

SAVE
$101 or 620 Kilowatt-Hours—Per Heater—Per Year

Switch from Air Conditioning to fans to stay cool. Exhaust hot air when it's cooler outside.

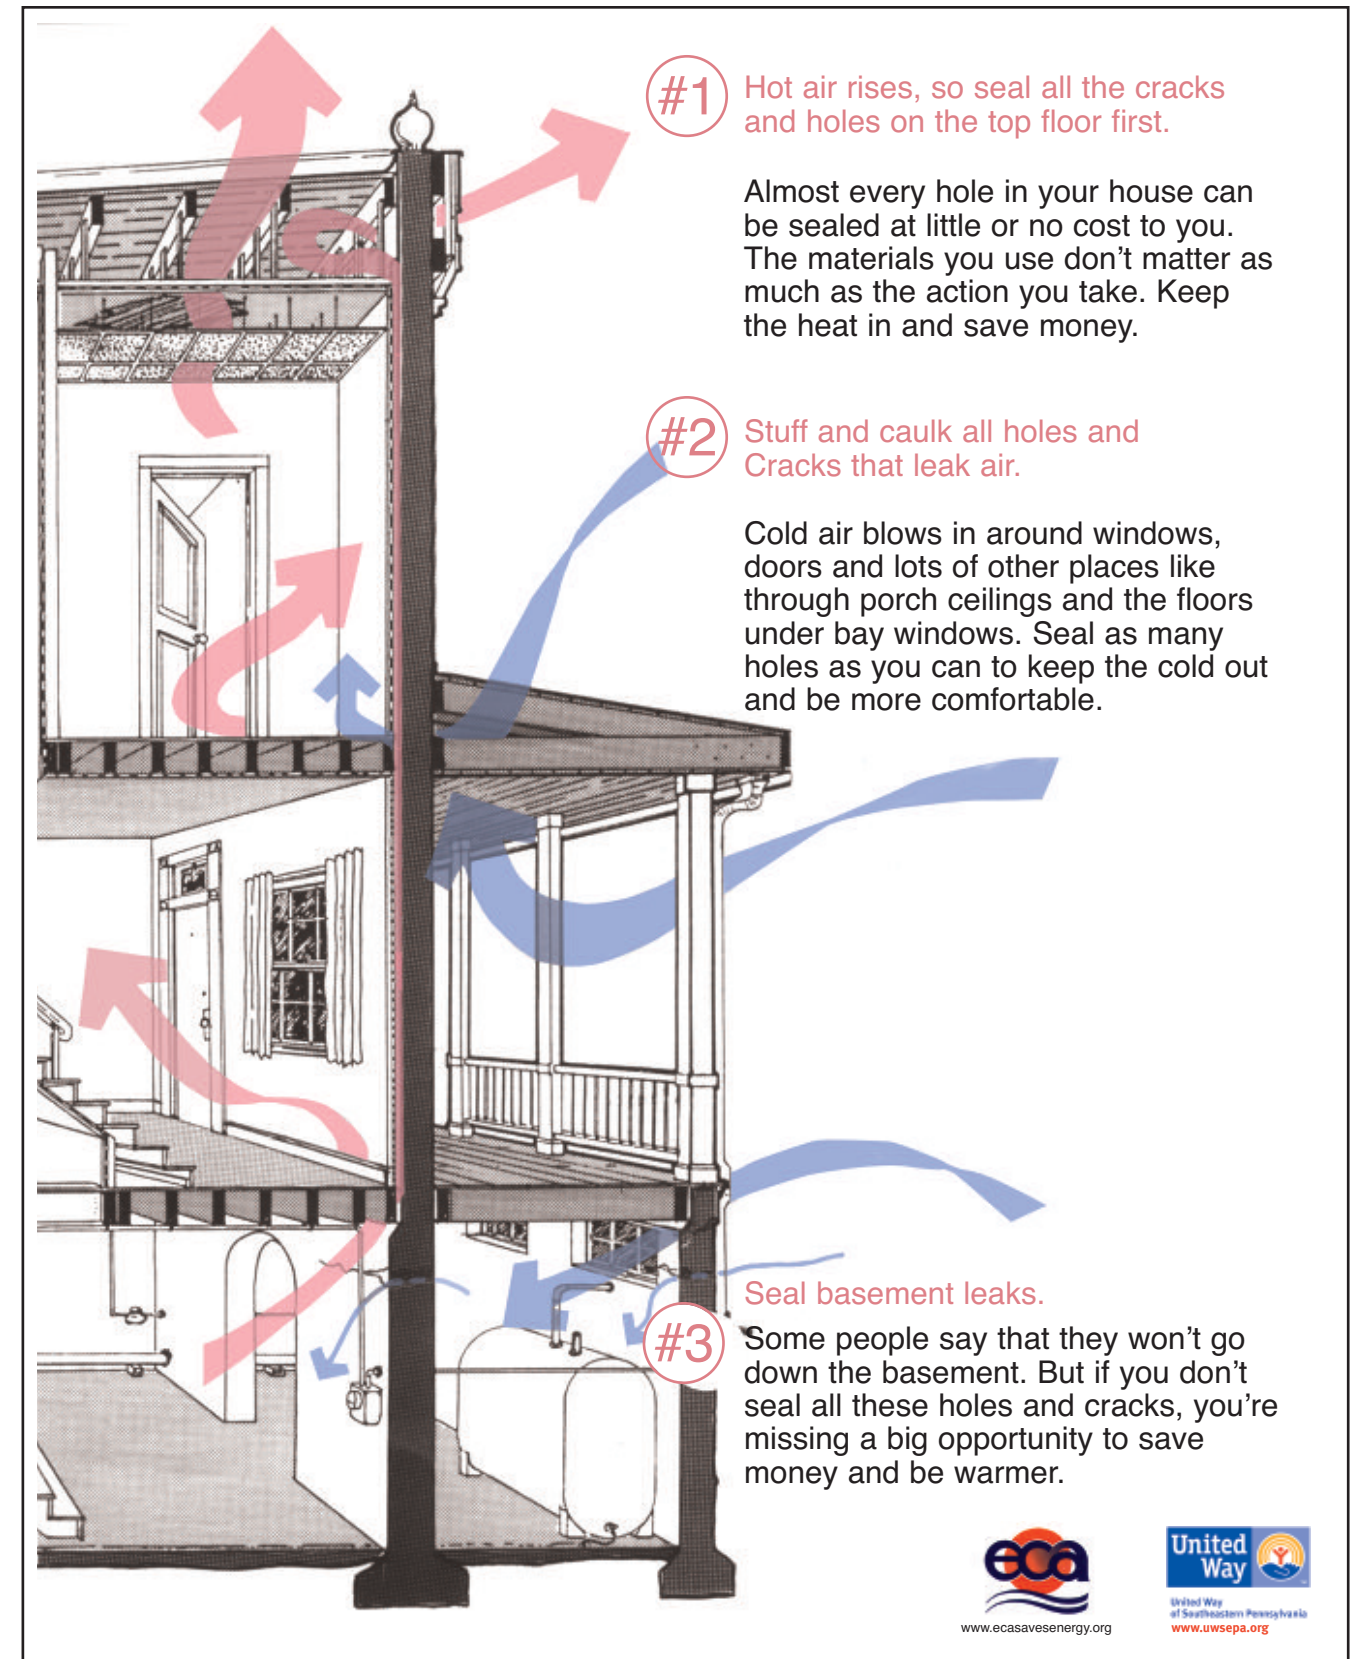

SAVE
$49 or 350 Kilowatt-Hours—Per Family of 3—Per Year

Electric usage adds up so turn off unused TVs, lights and appliances.

SAVE
$37 or 267 Kilowatt-Hours—Per Family of 3—Per Year

Energy Saving Actions

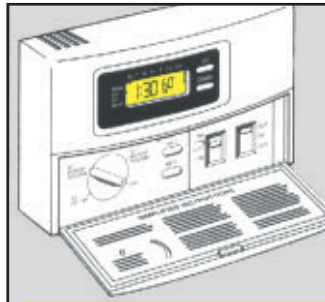

Copyright © 2004 Energy Coordinating Agency of Philadelphia, Inc. 1924 Arch Street, Philadelphia, PA 19103.

Note: Energy prices are rising rapidly, so the value of savings quoted in this brochure may be lower than actual savings.

Additional support provided by Federal Home Loan Bank of Pittsburgh and the Claneil Foundation.

What saves the most GAS?

Gas is sold in CCFs or Hundred Cubic Feet

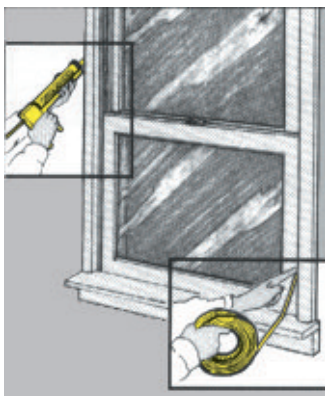

Install clock thermostat with a 5 degree setback at night.

SAVE
$138 or 91 CCFs—Per Household—Per Year

Seal up big holes on the top floor and in the basement.

SAVE
$108 or 71 CCFs—Per Household—Per year

Caulk and rope caulk windows. Close storms or install plastic window kits.

SAVE
$90 or 59 CCFs—Per Household—Per year

Lower your water temperature to warm or normal and wrap your hot water heater.

SAVE
$46 or 30 CCFs—Per Household—Per year

What saves the most WATER?

Water is sold in CCFs or Hundred Cubic Feet.
One CF= about 8 gallons.

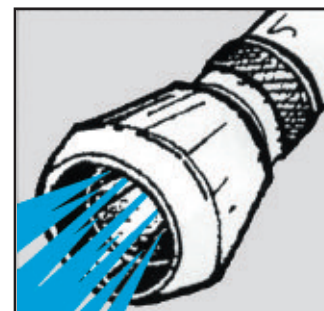

Repair running toilet, and big leaks in pipes and faucet.

SAVE
$640 or 150,000 Gallons—Per Active Leak—Per Year

Repair dripping faucet and pipe leaks.

SAVE
$130 or 30,000 Gallons—Per Active Leak—Per Year

Take short showers or half baths.

SAVE
$80 or 18,000 Gallons—Per Family of 3—Per Year

Shut water off when washing dishes, brushing teeth or shaving.

SAVE
$28 or 6,000 Gallons—Per Family of 3—Per Year