

URBAN JUSTICE CENTER

Urban Justice Center can give legal services for asylum seekers, tenants, grassroots community groups, refugees, sex workers, street vendors, veterans, and much more.

Urban Justice Center has shelters, career and technology training, and can offer FREE legal services.

Departments and Contact Information

International Refugee Assistance Program: Legal services for refugees and displaced persons	Email: info@refugeerights.org Address: 40 Rector St. 9th Floor New York, NY 10006
Youth Project: Legal Services for homeless and street involved LGBTQ young people under 25 years of age in NYC	Call: (877) 542-8529 Email: pcyp@urbanjustice.org For information about drop-in centers click, HERE
Veteran Advocacy Project: Free legal services to low-income veterans with a focus on those with PTSD, traumatic brain injury, and substance abuse problems	Phone: (646) 602-5620 Email: veterans@urbanjustice.org For more information click, HERE
TakeRook Justice: Legal help, participatory research and policy support to community-based NYC groups	Phone: (212) 810-6744 Email: info@takerootjustice.org For more information click, HERE

For more information or if you are not sure what legal department to contact please call 646-602-5600 and they will help you