CHILDCARE (AGES 0-2)

EarlyLearn NYC provides full-time childcare to low-income families with children from birth to 2 years old. Extended day/year programs provide early care and education services for up to 10 hours a day.

EarlyLearn NYC
Eligibility   Eligibility is based on your family's income and needs. Visit: access.nyc.gov/ to determine your eligibility

Early Learn NYC extended-day programs (early care and educational services for up to 10 hours a day)

Your family may qualify for infant/toddler extended day/year programs if at least one of these categories applies to you:

➔ You receive public assistance

➔ Your family's income falls below a certain amount and have an approved "reason for care", this means:

● You work 20+ hours per week	● You are in an educational program	● You are in an vocational training program
● You have been looking for work for up to 6 months	● You are attending services for domestic violence	● You live in temporary housing

Enrollment for extended and not extended programs

- Admissions for infant and toddler programs are year-round. Your child can enroll in a program any time, if you are eligible and there is a seat available.
- For a list of centers that accept infants and babies (over 6 weeks) go to myschools.nyc/en. Use the age filter.
- Contact individual programs to determine requirements for enrollment.
- For information about vouchers that help pay for childcare, visit access.nyc.gov/programs/child-care-voucher or call 311
- For support with child care enrollment call the Day Care Council NYC at 212-206-7818.

Child Care Assistance Voucher
Interested families can apply for a child care assistance voucher from the Administration for Children's Services (ACS) at access.nyc.gov/programs/child-care-voucher/#how-to-apply
Voucher availability is dependent upon funding.
Enrolling your child in another program will not impact your place on the voucher waitlist.
