Campaign for Working Families (CWF) is a 501(c)(3) non-profit organization committed to helping working families and individuals achieve economic empowerment by providing free tax preparation, resource building, and asset development. We are partnering with Code For America who created GetYourRefund.org as a secure web portal that you can use to upload your tax documents and communicate with our IRS-certified preparers. We are here for you every step of the way should you run into any issues.
