Additional Resources

Are you or someone you know in need of food assistance? Philabundance has partnered with the USDA Hunger Hotline & WhyHunger to connect you to resources near you.

You can reach the USDA National Hunger Hotline* at 1-866-3-HUNGRY (486479). Operators can connect you to the following resources within your local community: emergency food providers, government assistance programs and various social services.

*Hotline operated by the New York City Coalition Against Hunger.

Call 1-800-5-HUNGRY (486479) or visit WhyHunger.org/findfood to locate a local emergency food provider and other support services. The WhyHunger Hotline refers people in need across the U.S. to food pantries, soup kitchens, summer meals sites, government nutrition programs and grassroots organizations, especially those that provide access to nutritious food and nutritional support services.

USDA is an Equal Opportunity Provider and Employer.

The Commodity Supplemental Food Program (CSFP) provides USDA-donated food to low-income seniors through monthly CSFP/senior boxes. Philabundance packs and distributes these boxes to strategically chosen locations throughout the Delaware Valley, ensuring that seniors have access to shelf-stable foods to last throughout the month. Boxes contain approximately 30 lbs. of canned and boxed food. To locate an agency near you where you can register for the program, call 1-866-3-HUNGRY (486479) or 1-800-5-HUNGRY (486479).
